We send you our warm greetings!

We are an international gathering of over 650 women called Feminenza. Fifty of us, from 14 western countries have been gathering for the past four days around the issue of the female gender getting the opportunity to blossom in its natural birthright brilliance, talents and potential and thereby making a difference in the world. We believe the time is NOW.

We are very moved by the feminine voice within, which speaks through your Creed. We know our lives are very different in culture to yours, but in nature we are the same. A courageous deed is done by putting this creed into the world we say "YES" to you in response.

We cannot be indifferent to our gender companions, our sisters, wherever they are in the world. We are all responsible today for better tomorrows and we believe that there is everything yet to win.

We would like to publish your Women's Creed so that more of our companions will hear what you say. We hope you agree to this, but let us know if you do not.

Please keep in touch.

In value and respect,

The Ladies of Feminenza
